

Master Margherita

Imagine a deep, purple, velvet sea.

The waves rolling in and out, flowing slowly in perfect harmony.

Bubbles of light raise from the depths of this ocean, floating upwards as they become bigger and brighter, stirring the velvet waters as they finally emerge. The bubbles pop up and release light, bit by bit, rhythmically and melodically, forming a spectacular symphony of colours.

This is our visual impression of Master Margherita's realm, where acoustic beats flourish in all possible ways through his greatest passion: music.
